

DOVIA TRAINING Recruit & Retain Volunteers – Making the Most of Local Volunteer Websites

Featuring: United Way, Hands On, Volunteer Center of Sacramento & VolunteerMatch!

This half-day training will be presented by representatives from local volunteer matching web-sites, including Mary Beth Pilon from United Way, Michael Winans from Hands On, Christine Wallace from the Volunteer Center of Sacramento & Jennifer Bennett from VolunteerMatch (based in San Francisco).

RARE OPPORTUNITY to meet with a VolunteerMatch Representative**

Special Offer: Attend this training and receive 1 free year of the VolunteerMatch Community Leader program that provides a variety of tools and features to help nonprofits recruit and communicate with volunteers ($75 Value!).

Do not miss this training! You will walk away with:

- Step-by-step instruction on how to post & make the most of each website
- What each volunteer organization has to offer that you don't know about
- Tips & Tricks on getting results

Come network and make connections with volunteer matching organizations. Learn how they can help you recruit and retain high-quality volunteers, Starting Now!

Half-Day Training: 9am-1pm on Wed, Feb 10 (registration 8:30-9am)
Pannell/Meadowview Community Center Computer Lab
(2450 Meadowview Rd, Sac, CA 95832)
Cost: $35 members • $50 non-members (Pay at door)

RSVP to cwallace@volunteersac.org or (916) 567-3100 x106

DOVIA, Directors of Volunteers in Agencies, is a networking and professional development organization for individuals who coordinate volunteer activities. Learn more at www.doviasacramento.org